Applicant Information

Last (Family) Name: _____ First Name: _____ Middle Name: _____

Term applying for: Fall Spring Year _____

I am requesting permission not to submit an English proficiency test score based on the following statement:

- My primary language is English. A primary language is defined as a language used to communicate since childhood.
- I earned a law degree from a recognized institution of higher learning at which the primary language of instruction was English (please attach transcript with your application).
- I earned a prior academic degree from an accredited institution of higher learning in the United States (please attach transcript with your application).
- I have successfully been a non-degree student at UConn School of Law and seek advanced standing in an LLM or Executive LLM program (please attach non-degree transcript with your application).
- I have completed an intensive English language course at UCAELI and received the accompanying certificate of English proficiency from UCAELI (please attach certificate).

I certify that the information provided is complete and accurate. Should developments occur prior to enrollment in the University of Connecticut School of Law which make any of the foregoing information false or misleading, I will submit to the School of Law such additional information as may be required to make this application complete and accurate.
